Nepean Community College strongly believes in placing students on career pathways tailored to each individual. To ensure a quality learning experience we connect with each of our students prior to enrolment to discuss learning options.

We aim to ensure that you are placed in courses which are most relevant to your career goals and existing skills and knowledge.

Vocational Education and Training focuses on a system of competency based assessment. Competency based assessment determines a student's level of achievement based on two factors:

- The ability of a student to perform practical tasks to a specified standard
- The ability of a student to show understanding of identified knowledge standards within the particular industry relevant to the accredited course.

All students who register an interest in BSB40515 Certificate IV in Business Administration will be asked to undertake a Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment prior to enrolment. In this way we can identify any support you may need to complete the course and ensure it is available. We offer literacy support materials to assist any gaps identified by this assessment. We also work with the course facilitators to make reasonable adjustments to training plans if necessary.

As a centre for Social Inclusion, our premises are designed with disability support in mind. When registering for this course you are encouraged to confirm any special needs you may have in regards to equipment, resources or training materials and we will work with you on an individual basis to accommodate those needs to the best of our ability.

Students who commit to enrolment in this course will be supplied with all necessary training materials such as workbooks, computers, access to simulated environment and free internet access. This will also include a timetable of training delivery and you are encouraged to speak to the trainer if the schedule creates learning difficulties.

Assessment will be undertaken in a variety of ways, including:

- Roleplays
- Workbook activities
- Projects
- Written questions
- Verbal discussions
- Group activities

It is expected that you will undertake self-study and practice outside of the 16 hours of classroom learning you must attend. The amount of self-study and practice will be dependent on your existing capabilities. At first you may have to spend up to 24 hours a week in self-study to ensure you fully understand the knowledge and skills explained during your face-to-face classes. As time progresses and your knowledge and skills develop, this may reduce.

For those students who have previously studied units of competency relevant to BSB40515 Certificate IV in Business Administration we offer a system that recognises your prior learning or current competencies.

If you fall into this category, please contact us prior to enrolment to discuss your previous experience in person. Please note that we are required by legislation to contact the provider of your previous qualifications to confirm authenticity.

This training may be subsidised by the NSW Government. To check your eligibility for course subsidies please contact Nepean Community College prior to enrolment. You will be provided with a quotation which will remain current for 2 weeks. If your study is delayed for any reason you will be provided with a new quotation.
