Who can enrol?

Unless otherwise stated, all courses and workshops are for people 15 years and over. Younger participants may be accepted if accompanied by a fee paying adult.

Please choose your course carefully as the College cannot accept responsibility for changes in personal circumstances which prevent attendance. Once a course is planned, funds are then committed to course costs and cannot be refunded. Once a course has commenced, we regret we cannot arrange a transfer to another course. Requests for refund should be made in writing to the Principal. This refund policy does not remove your rights to take further action under the Australian Consumer Law.

New NSW Government Support provides Concessions and Fee Free programs. Contact the College for eligibility information. For other programs Pensioners and Seniors Cards where the fee is up to and including $120 the reduction is $15, for all other courses the reduction is $20. Companion Program for People With a Disability

Enrolment (excluding course materials) in any course for companions of people with disabilities is FREE where that Companion has enabled a person with a disability to participate in a College course. Contact the College for details as to which courses are easily accessible.

Student Support

The College exists to provide opportunities to learn. It will make every effort to provide reasonable adjustments. All students who register an interest in accredited course will be asked to undertake a Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment prior to enrolment. In this way we can identify any support you may need to complete the course and ensure it is available. We offer literacy support materials to assist any gaps identified by this assessment. We also work with the course facilitators to make reasonable adjustments to training plans if necessary

When you have demonstrated competence against the Assessment Criteria for an Accredited training program you will be issued with a Statement of Attainment or Certificate. For all other courses you may request a Participation Certificate
